DESCRIPTION OF THE COURSE

The vast knowledge of Dr. Chiara Leo and Dr. Rick Sanchez will guide us through the understanding of the oncological pathologies that afflict the eye and its annexes in dogs and cats.

The point of view of the ophthalmologist and the collaboration of the oncologist are fundamental in making the diagnosis and in choosing the most effective therapy, both from a medical and a surgical point of view.

Le competenze della Dott.ssa Chiara Leo e del Dr. Rick Sanchez ci guideranno attraverso la comprensione delle patologie oncologiche che affliggono l'occhio ed i suoi annessi nel cane e nel gatto.

Il punto di vista dell'oftalmologo e la collaborazione dell'oncologo sono fondamentali nella effettuazione della diagnosi e nella scelta della terapia più efficace, sia da un punto di vista medico che chirurgico.

RICK SANCHEZ

BSciBiol, DVM, CertVOphthal, Dipl. ECVO, FHEA

Rick was born in Spain but followed his education in the US and the UK with a BSciBiol in 1994 (STAC, New York), a DVM in 1999 after attending Ross and Louisiana State Universities, a Certificate in Ophthalmology issued by the Royal College of Veterinary Surgeons (RCVS) in 2004, DipECVO status in 2007, a veterinary teaching degree (FHEA) through the RVC in 2014, and RCVS Recognized Specialist status in 2016. Work: After obtaining his college and university degrees, Rick commenced his veterinary specialty training in the US in 1999. After obtaining a European veterinary qualification in Barcelona in 2002, he undertook a residency training in ophthalmology at the University of Glasgow and the Eye Veterinary Clinic in the UK, which he completed in 2005. Then, he developed a private ophthalmology practice in Kent until late 2011, when he joined the Royal Veterinary College (RVC) of the University of London to re-establish and direct the Ophthalmology Service and an ECVO Ophthalmology Residency program. He returned to private practice in 2017, settling in Utrecht, The Netherlands (Specialistische Dierenkliniek Utrecht - SDU). Rick lectures around the world. He is an Editorial Board Member of the Veterinary Ophthalmology journal since 2010. He is the Ophthalmology Section Editor of BMC Veterinary Research since 2018. He has contributed the 'Cornea' chapter (ch12) to the BSAVA Manual in Ophthalmology and the 'Eyelid Reconstruction' chapter (ch6) to the Reconstructive Surgery and Wound Management of the Dog and Cat', and in 2020 hopes to launch a new textbook entitled 'An Atlas of Small Animal Ocular Surgery'. He has active research interest in the cornea, corneal surgery, cataract surgery and glaucoma (follow the link below to view his current research publication list).

CHIARA LEO
